Venezuela Will Defy the Pour ers of Great Britain.

IT IS HER ONLY RECOURSE

Her Citizens Would Rather See Their Country Go Oul of Existence Than l'ass Into the Practical Control of a Foreiga

by persons in a position to speak with authority that as soon as Venezuela is convinced that Great Britain has finally decided to arbitrate or settle the boundary dispute as suggested by the United States through Ambassador Bayard, the southern republic will regretfally but resolutely resort to what she regards as her only recourse, a resort to force.

Venezuela fully recognizes the great military strength of Great Britain, but it is declared that her people are ready to see their cities desolated and laid in ashes rather than submit to what they regard as national dishonor. It is said fought on March 15, in the department of Santander, and which, according to is not so much one of territory as of the sentiment and honor involved. So firmly impressed have the people become with this that opinion is expressed that they would rather see their country go out of existence than pass unto the practical control of a foreign power.

Little doubt is felt under there carcumstances that Venezuela will foreibly assert ner rights to the disputed Orinoco territory as soon as Great Britain's rejection of a settlement is definitely commanicated. The territory extends about 150 miles along the coast, running back 35 miles to what is known as the Schomberg ane. Through the middle of tais strip runs the Ormoco river, comma iding the commerce of it to the interior of Sonta America. Great Britain is already well intrenched there with a naval station at the moath of the river.

The interest of the United States in the controversy has progressed steadily in resent days. It began with the friendly suggestion through Mr. Bayard and a request from congress that Great Britam submit the matter to arbitration. The United States squadron under Admiral Meade was accorded an oviction at Venezuelan ports quite recoarly and steps were taken to commemorate the Moncoe doctrine by erecting a statue to President Monroe at the capital of Venezuela.

Within recent days Venezuela has granted large concessions of the Orinoco country to citizens of the United States. brave Captain Ordonez, as well us about a resort to force is made. It is under-300 soldiers, and 400 wounded. The stood that the position of Great Britain enemy's loss was heavier, and they had in declining the suggestion of the United States for the settlement of the Reyes says that after the battle only 800 | trouble with Venezuela is substantially

First, Great Pritain takes the position "When the battle was over General that the question of arbitration was once before proposed by Venezuela. At that time the foreign office gave the then submitted a reply embodying a subjects of controversy. To this proposition Venezuela has never made a reply, either accepting or rejecting the proposed basis of arbitration. Under these circumstances it is not desirable to proceed to a second proposition of arbitration, when the first reunins unanswered.

Second, in any event there are certain portions of territory to which Vencumstances will be made the subject of arbitration as they are recognized and established portions of the British doturned to his old home. A reward for main, and are not, therefore, a subject on which the judgment of arbitrators could be involved. Third, the subject matter is one between Great Britain and Venezuela so that the good offices of the United States are not regarded as essential to a settlement, as it is not understood that the United States has assumed a protectorate over Venezuela or has other interest than that of a friendly power.

l'ostoffice Robbed,

Springfield postoffiee was robbed of about $8,000 Wednesday. It was altogether the neatest and most mysterious job ever put up in this city, and there is not the faintest elew to the perpetrators. The amount taken, with the exception of about $30, was in stamps and it was abstracted from the vault in Postmaster Ridgely's private office.

Shortage Alleged.

PITTSFIELD, Ills., April 5.—For some time a shortage has been suspected in the county treasurer's office and a com mittee has been at work on the books As a result J. W. Linville, deputy county treasurer, has been arrested and is now looking for bondsmen. His shortage is estimated at $5,000.

Will Go Deeper.

RICHMOND, Ind., April 5.—The eity conneil has appropriated $3,500 with which to continue drilling the gas well, which is now down 1,300 feet. It has been sunk that far by individual capital, and the city takes up the work, seeuring a half interest in proportion to the amount of money expended.

Hanged Himself.

LAPORTE, Ind., April 5.—William Davidson, a wealthy citizen of Edwardsburg, near Elkhart, committed suicide by hanging himself. There is the absence of any known motive for the deed, and an investigation will be made.

Three Harned.

ELLENBORO, W. Va., April 5.—During the last few nights three residences in this locality have been destroyed by fire. Losses about $3,000. Defective flues assigned as cause.
